The prisoners were awaiting removal to the state penitentiary when they effected their escape. When caught they were armed with heavy clubs, with which they threatened to put up a resistance, but, cowed by the size of the crowd pursuing them, they surrendered vithout violence and were led back to

The whereabouts of the men were unknown to the authorities until the telephone operator at Riner happened to glance out of the window and saw them passing. At once recognizing them as the men wanted he telephoned to several neighbors, who armed themselves and organized a posse, catching up with the fugitives a short distance away. The escape of the men occurred when the jailer, after giving the men their supper, forgot to lock the doors, the prisoners walking out as soon as he was safely gone.

The old, old story, told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 36 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health-There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by W. F. Creigh-ton and Richard Gibson.

BACON DID IT.

The democratic triumph in Indiana and the defeat of Senator Beveridge are attributed to many causes, among them the speeches of Theodore Roosevelt in Indiana, the tariff, the high cost of living and 40-cent bacon.

GRUESOME OBJECT LESSONS.

Corpses of two men who died from alcoholism were placed on exhibition in the windows of the undertaking establishment of the deputy coroner at Auburn, 30 miles south of Seattle, in an effort to win votes for the "drys" in the local option election held in Seattle Tuesday, but without apparent effect, for the town voted "wet."

Both factions were making a hard fight and the prohibitionists appeared to be in the lead. Then the tide began to turn. tThe anti-saloon leaders appealed to Deputy Coroner Connell, an ardent prohibitionist. He hurried to his establishment, where the bodies trustworthy promise of peace. A com- he placed them in the front windows. Above their heads a sign, "He died of drink," was tacked. As voters hurried by. the anti-saloon men directed their attention to the exhibition.

There was no desecration of the dead," said Connell. "The men were without friends, and their bodies might just as well have been put to
